Plein air artists to paint where it all began

On May 17, 2008, ten artists attended the Plein Air Artists of West Michigan's inaugural meeting and Paint Out held at Cold Brook Park near Climax, Michigan in Kalamazoo County. Since then the group's membership has grown dramatically over the years. PAAWM has formed important links with the Southwest Michigan Land Conservancy and Pierce Cedar Creek Institute as well as great partnerships with other plein air groups across Michigan.

Cold Brook has 276 acres with three large lakes connected by levee's and foot trails. Maple, oak and pine forests surround the lakes. Plenty to paint!

Please join us at 9 a.m. for a fun day of painting. At 1:30 p.m. we will gather at the "Woods Shelter" for our critique.

PLEASE NOTE: There is a $5 entrance fee per car.
