PAAWM's First Paint Out at Fernwood Gardens

Fernwood
Opens at 10 a.m.

A favorite of all who love nature—flora and fauna, Fernwood Botanical Garden is situated on the St. Joseph River in Niles, Michigan, near Buchanan in picturesque Berrien County.

Fernwood comprises 105 acres and protects at least 10 ecosystems and is a birder's paradise. Visitors may enjoy natural areas with miles of walking and hiking trails, a reconstructed prairie, an arboretum, and cultivated public gardens that include an herb garden, Japanese garden, perennial border, rain garden, railway garden, nature adventure garden, hardy fern collection, and other special collections and garden.

BRIDGE CLOSURE: The Walton/River Road bridge is currently CLOSED for construction. The project is expected to last into October. Please use the US-31 bypass Exit 7 (Walton Road) to get to Fernwood during this time.
